5. Superintendent’s Report

Rhonda update. Rhonda will come back half time on Monday.

Audit report not complete yet. Questions about proper reporting of REAP money.

Luther quickly got to the septic problems at school. Great work with good communication.

Warrants and electronic signatures-Karen can get the forms via email, Ben came out and set her up with electronic signatures. Forms will only go to board members not town selectman. After school board members get the warrant and electronically sign, delete the email for security purposes. Could put it into a Google drive document that does not enable editing or printing. Will look into it more.

Calendar needs to go to the Department of Ed. by middle to end of June at the latest. Money hasn’t been finalized from Augusta.

Received another increase in insurance for the school bus driver. Let it go for the last year of high school for our two current students.
